

To Whom it May Concern

I have been a member at Golds for 2 years, a little over one year ago I met Kevin. We hit it off as friends right away. For everyone in the gym soon gets to know him. He talks to and gets to know people quickly. He has a great personality. We became workout partners along with Jeff, CLAY, + Dyanie. One day after working out Apox. 7 month together with Jeff, Dyanie, I missed the day when Kevin had a run in with R. But the next day Clay + Kevin informed me of what happened. Kevin was very upset and bothered by this woman not believing that he did not say one word about her. He informed me many times telling me he swore in God's name he did not say anything. Clay made a few remarks but NOT Kevin. Time passed and I honestly never ever saw Kevin make any contact with this woman.

he wanted nothing to do with her me & Jeff teased him when we saw her in the Gym and would make remarks saying your Girl friend is here he would always roll his eyes & say right That chick is Wacko

Today is 7-27-11 about 2 weeks prior me, my son, and sean were working out. Kevin came over to talk and I noticed R approx 50 Feet away and kidding Kevin. I said hey there is your Girl friend. as he turned along with Sean, & My Son She looked up at us, seeing this she shrugged her arms up. We turned back and I told Kevin I was sorry Did NOT think she would look when I made that Remark but Did.

To Go after Kevin The way she is floors me. I Don't know what shes after but it's redickulas.
I hope GOLD'S Gym has enough proof and members to show her paranoid insecuritys are going to cause problems at The Gym if not Kevin it would be someone else
